Headteacher's Blog

Once again we're racing through the school year and Summer Term is now upon us. Our Core Value for this term is Equality. This links well with our British Value, Mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. As we continue to develop Growth Mind-set in our school, this term we shall be asking the children, 'How does taking risks make you a better learner?' You could ask your child at home, 'Have you taken any risks in your learning today?'

We are currently blessed with some lovely weather (long may it continue!) Can I take this opportunity to remind you of our Summer Uniform on our website? Sensible and appropriate school shoes must be worn - no sandals or trainers please. It's also advisable to send children in with a plain sun hat/cap and to apply sunscreen before they come to school.

Upcoming news:

Data protection laws are changing which means the way we gain consent for information is changing. The new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) comes into effect on 25th May. You can expect to receive some information and forms from us next month. In the meantime, you can learn more about what this means on our website.

We held our termly Fire Drill this week. The children were fantastic and the entire school was accounted for in under 3 minutes. They were so respectful and responsible. Please take this opportunity to discuss fire safety with your child and remind them of their learning during Safety Week.

Art Gallery

Parents and carers are invited to visit our Art Gallery and to view their child's Topic Report on Wednesday 25th April at 2:45pm. Gates will open at 2.45pm.

POLITE REMINDER

The school play equipment is NOT to be used by the children before or after school. This includes the Year R area and equipment on the field. Thank you.

Water Bottles

It is very important for the children to remain hydrated whilst they are in school, particularly during this lovely warmer weather!

Please send your child in with a water bottle every day, with their name clearly marked. Thank you.
