

Week 6 – English – Lesson 4 – Past Tense Revision

Past progressive tense is used to describe an on-going activity in the past; it is often used to set the scene for another action. You can identify the past progressive tense by looking for a verb + ing.

1. Sort the verbs from the word bank into the table below.

Simple Past	Past Progressive

coming had came walking having growing walked grew

2. Put an 'X' next to the sentences that have been written correctly in the past progressive tense.

A. I was sitting in the garden when my mum said you had called.

B. Henry was waited for Stan when the last bus going past.

C. When the alarm started ringing, the children began lining up outside.

D. Freya was finished her homework when Ted took her cake.

3. Which sentence is the odd one out? Explain your reasoning.

A. The children were playing in the park when they found a strange rock.

B. Alexa pulled up the weeds while Marvin was building the new shed.

C. At Jordan's birthday party, Kelsey began to feel unwell.

D. Mum washed the dishes while Dan and Sarah were walking to the shops.