WALT: Plan a letter

S2S:

I can

- write to persuade
- use paragraphs
- use letter format

Explorer-Ernest Shackleton
1874-1922

Let's imagine....

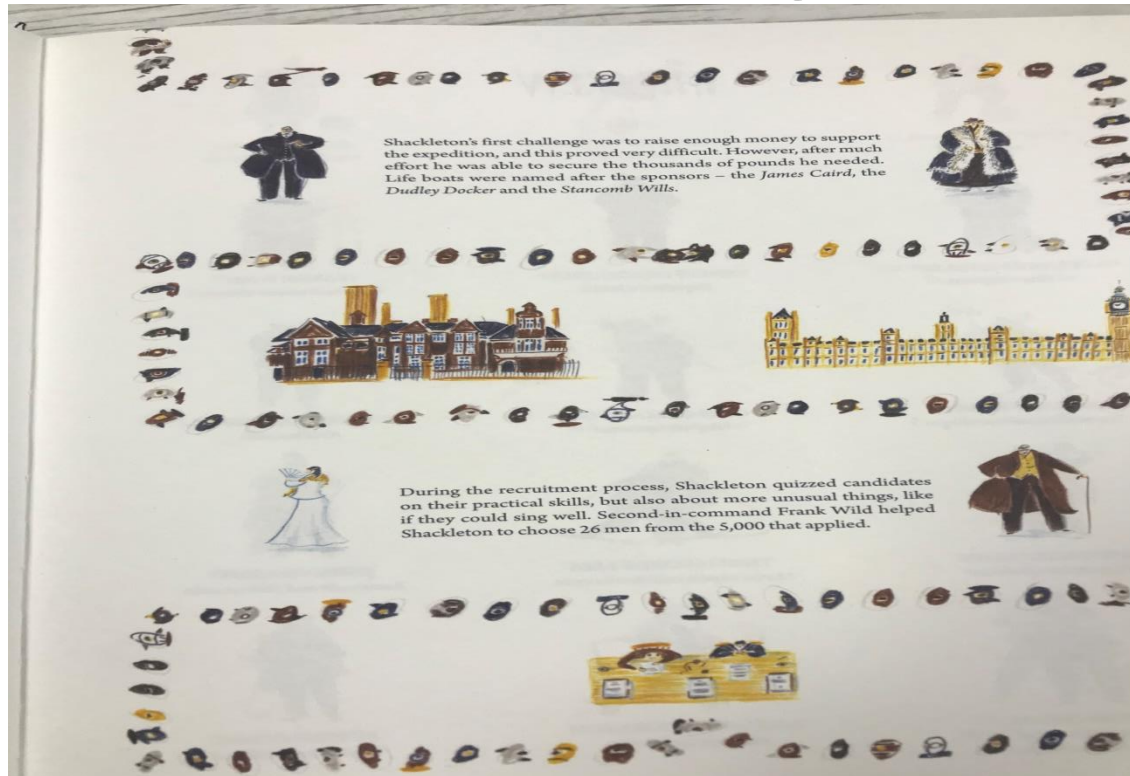

You can imagine that you are the great explorer 'Ernest Shackleton.'

Now imagine that you really want to make a name for yourself and go on your biggest adventure.

Remember he needed thousands of pounds to make this happened.

How did he get the money?

Let's remind ourselves...page 4.

Let's role play...

Between you and your partner ...

- One be Shackleton, asking for the money.
- One be James Caird, asking why he needs the money.

- Shackletons need to persuade.
- Cairds need to ask why the expedition is needed.

Role play...

Which pair wants to present their role play?

Come up onto the stage.

Planning our letter...

What do we now about letter writing?

- How do we set it out?-who is it to/from?
- Will it be formal/informal?
- Thinks about each paragraph.
- How can we persuade?

WALT: write a letter

S2S I can

- write to persuade
- use paragraphs
- use letter format

Remember yesterday?

What did we do?

How did we do it?

How did we persuade?

Who can be persuade their Mum's that it's a good idea to have an ice cream?

Using our plans...

Now to write a formal letter to James Caird persuading him to sponsor our expedition.

Remember you are writing as Shackleton.

Use your plan to help you.

WALT: plan a news report

S2S I can

- write a headline
- write to create interest
- use the correct tense

What is a news report?

What is the purpose?

What do they look like?

Why do we have them?

What do they tell us?

What are the features?

News reports...

Let's have a look...

Key features...

- Name of newspaper.
- Headline to create interest.
- Introduction paragraph, including facts.
- Use quote, “I am very excited” stated Mr Shackleton.
- Write a concluding paragraph.
- Use captions and pictures.

Let's plan...

What do we need to use?

What do we need to write?

How should we write? What will made the reader want to buy our newspaper?

Remember to break up the columns into different categories.

Remember we are writing about what is going to happen...not what has happened-use the correct tense.
