

Monday 23rd November 2020

WALT: write a diary entrée

S2S:

I can

*write using the first person

*use the correct tense

*use apostrophes for possession

Let's imagine...

We are going to become Ernest Shackleton for our English learning this week.

We are going to write a diary of his great adventure.

Features of a diary entrée...

Write in the first person...I, we, my, me.

Tell events of the persons life.

Mainly write in the past tense.

Talk about feelings and emotions.

Use time connectives to show when things happen.

Use paragraphs to sequence event.

Use adventurous vocabulary.

The first diary entrée

Setting sail...

Let's remind ourselves...Pages 13-16

Things to think about...

The first diary entrée

Setting sail...

Things to think about...

- The date-4th December 1914
- They had travelled to South Georgia (what had happened on the journey?)
- How would he be feeling?
- What did he say?
- Where were they going?

Wednesday 25th November 2020

WALT: write a diary entrée

S2S:

I can

*write using the first person

*use the correct tense

*use apostrophes for possession

Features of a diary entrée...

Write in the first person...I, we, my, me.

Tell events of the persons life.

Mainly write in the past tense.

Talk about feelings and emotions.

Use time connectives to show when things happen.

Use paragraphs to sequence event.

Use adventurous vocabulary.

The second diary entrée

Endurance stuck...

Let's remind ourselves...Pages 19-24

Things to think about...

The second diary entrée

Endurance stuck...

Things to think about...

- The date-14th February 1914
- They had travelled through 700 miles of pack ice-what had happened on the journey?
- What had they seen?
- How would he be feeling?
- What was he thinking?
- What was he planning on doing?

Thursday 26th November 2020

WALT: write a diary entrée

S2S:

I can

*write using the first person

*use the correct tense

*use apostrophes for possession

Features of a diary entrée...

Write in the first person...I, we, my, me.

Tell events of the persons life.

Mainly write in the past tense.

Talk about feelings and emotions.

Use time connectives to show when things happen.

Use paragraphs to sequence event.

Use adventurous vocabulary.

The third diary entrée

Patience Camp...

Let's remind ourselves...Pages 33-40

Things to think about...

The third diary entrée

Patience Camp...

Things to think about...

- The date-1st January 1915
- They had marched from Ocean Camp-what had happened?
- What had they seen?
- How would he be feeling?
- How was the crew behaving?
- What was he thinking?
- What was he planning on doing?

Friday 27th November 2020

WALT: write a diary entrée

S2S:

I can

*write using the first person

*use the correct tense

*use apostrophes for possession

Features of a diary entrée...

Write in the first person...I, we, my, me.

Tell events of the persons life.

Mainly write in the past tense.

Talk about feelings and emotions.

Use time connectives to show when things happen.

Use paragraphs to sequence event.

Use adventurous vocabulary.

The fourth diary entrée

Preparing The James Caird...

Let's remind ourselves...Pages 41-48

Things to think about...

The fourth diary entrée

Preparing The James Caird...

Things to think about...

- The date-1st April 1916
- They had escaped the ice and sailed to Elephant Island.
- It had been 16 months of hardship.
- How would he be feeling?
- How was the crew behaving?
- What was he thinking?
- What was he planning on doing?