

SPaG...

SPaG

Monday 30th November 2020

Adverbials – What is an adverb?

An adverb can be used to describe a verb.

For example...

The children ran quickly.

↑ ↑
verb adverb

Adverbs usually end in 'ly'

- quickly
- slowly
- beautifully

Adverbials – What is an adverb?

An adverb can be used to describe a verb.

For example...

The man ate his soup loudly.

Identify the verb. Identify the adverb.

Adverbials

An adverbial is a word or a phrase that can be used to give more information about a verb such as when, where, how the action happened.

For example...

The girl rode her bike along the pavement.

↑
verb

└──────────────────┘
adverbial

This adverbial tells us where the girl rode her bike.

Adverbials

Let's play 'Spot the Adverbial'.

Find the adverbial in these sentences.

- I went for a walk early in the morning.
- Ben whacked the ball over the fence.
- Perhaps it will stop raining soon.

What does the adverbial tell us about the action?

SPaG...

SPaG

Wednesday 2nd
December 2020

Adverbials

An adverbial is a word or a phrase that can be used to give more information about a verb such as when, where, how the action happened.

For example...

The girl rode her bike along the pavement.

↑
verb

└──────────────────┘
adverbial

The adverbial tells us where the girl rode her bike.

Adverbials

Look at these sentences with the adverbial underlined.

What does the adverbial tell us?

- The sky was black and it was obviously going to rain.
- Undoubtedly the best football team is England.
- As he had such a big lead in the race surely he would win.

Adverbials

- The sky was black and it was obviously going to rain.
- Undoubtedly the best football team is England.
- As he had such a big lead in the race surely he would win.

These adverbials tell us about the possibility of something happening, or how likely it is to happen.

Adverbials to show a degree of possibility.

These adverbials tell us about the possibility of something happening, or how likely it is to happen.

Can you use one of these in a sentence? How many can you think of? Write some in your book.

definitely

quite likely impossibly

maybe surely perhaps obviously possibly clearly probably

almost certainly unquestionably undoubtedly

SPaG...

SPaG

Thursday 3rd December 2020

Adverbials

An adverbial is a word or a phrase that can be used to give more information about a verb such as when, or where the action happened or how likely it is to happen.

For example...

I can't come this week but I definitely will next time.

Adverbials to show a degree of possibility.

These adverbials tell us about the possibility of something happening, or how likely it is to happen.

definitely

quite likely

impossibly

maybe

surely perhaps

obviously

possibly clearly

probably

almost certainly

unquestionably

undoubtedly

Adverbials

Underline the adverbial showing possibility then complete these sentences.

- We'll bring some food, we might possibly bring _____.
- Undoubtedly, the best way to decorate a cake is using _____.
- The lego tower was really tall, it was obviously going to _____.

SPaG...

SPaG

Friday 4th December 2020

Adverbials

An adverbial is a word or a phrase that can be used to give more information about a verb such as when, or where the action happened or how likely it is to happen.

For example...

I can't come this week but I definitely will next time.

These adverbials tell us about the possibility of something happening, or how likely it is to happen.

Write your own sentence on your white board using one of these adverbials.

definitely

quite likely

impossibly

maybe

surely perhaps

obviously

possibly clearly

probably

almost certainly

unquestionably undoubtedly