WALT: plan

S2S:

I can

- *think of ideas

- *plan ideas

- *write the key features of a newspaper report

What is a news report?

What is the purpose?

What do they look like?

Why do we have them?

What do they tell us?

What are the features?

News reports...

Let's have a look...

Key features...

- Name of newspaper.
- Headline to create interest.
- Introduction paragraph, including facts.
- Use quote, “I am very excited to be home” stated Mr Shackleton.
- Write a concluding paragraph.
- Use captions and pictures.

Let's plan...

What do we need to use?

What do we need to write?

How should we write? What will made the reader want to buy our newspaper?

Remember to break up the columns into different categories.

Remember we are writing about what did happened-use the correct past tense.

WALT: write a news report

S2S I can

- * write a headline
- *write to create interest
- *use inverted commas

Let's recap...

What were we learning to write yesterday?

Today we are going to use our plans to write our news paper reports in neat.

What do we need to remember?

Key features...

- Name of newspaper.
- Headline to create interest.
- Introduction paragraph, including facts.
- Use quote, “I am very excited” stated Mr Shackleton.
- Write a concluding paragraph.
- Use captions and pictures.

Things to include...

- Who-The great Ernest Shackleton and her loyal brave crew.
- What-Surviving the worlds most dangerous journey and rescuing his crew.
- Where-The Antarctic, through the frozen sea.
- When-They set sail on the 5th December 1914 and they rescued the crew on Elephant Island on the 30th August 1916.
- Why-To discover the unknown. "I chose life over death for myself and my friends...I believe it is in our nature to explore. The only true failure would be to not explore at all."
