

Thursday 14th
January 2021

English

Spelling Starter

- Practice your weekly focus words by either using Spelling Shed, rainbow writing, pyramid writing or backwards writing.

Thursday 14th January 2021

WALT: plan a letter

S2S I can

- * think of ideas
- *think of reasons
- *plan using adverbials

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.

Remember yesterday?

What did we do?

How did we do it?

How did we persuade?

Planning our letter...

What do we now about letter writing?

- How do we set it out?-who is it to/from?
- Will it be formal/informal?
- Thinks about each paragraph.
- How can we persuade?

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Make sure you use adverbials...

- clearly
- possibly
- surely
- maybe
- undoubtedly
- perhaps

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Introduction – Why are you writing?

Introduce yourself and explain to Mr Wonka why you are writing to him.

Hello Mr Wonka, my name is Charlie and I am writing to ask you a very important question. It would make all my dreams come true to win a golden ticket.

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Main Body paragraph 1

Using your adverbials to start your sentences to explain why
You deserve a golden ticket.

Firstly I would like to point out that I love chocolate and I am your biggest fan. Clearly I am a polite and kind little boy that really deserves a treat.

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Main Body paragraph 2

Continue to state why you deserve a golden ticket.

Perhaps I should explain, my family are very poor and we can never afford chocolate bars even though they are my favourite.

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Conclusion

Finally I would like to say thank you in advance for all the amazing chocolate and I look forward to seeing you.