WALT: write to persuade

S2S I can

- * write giving reasons
- * write clearly
- * use adverbials

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Let's role play...

Learning partners...or if you're at home maybe use someone from your family or play by yourself, taking it in turns to be Charlie then Willy Wonka.

Name 1 and 2.

Number 1- you are Charlie.

Number 2- you are Willy Wonka

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Charlie you need to persuade Willy Wonka that you deserve a golden ticket.

Explain why you believe that you deserve it more than anyone else. Make sure you give clear reasons why.

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Make sure you use adverbials...

- Clearly I deserve a golden ticket because I am such a good boy.
- Possibly other children are good too, but I am very poor and this would make my dreams come true.
- Surely you can see that I deserve this opportunity.
- Maybe there is only a small number of tickets, but one should really be mine, I have been kind to everyone all year.
- Undoubtedly everyone would want a ticket, but other people can afford chocolate everyday.
- Perhaps you can see that I want nothing more than to win a golden ticket.

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Now we have the ideas we are going to write a paragraph persuading Willy Wonka that Charlie deserves a golden ticket. Write the paragraph from Charlie's point of view.
