

Story Structure

- To show your understanding of how stories are structured.
- Find the portion of text that you would include under each section. The start for each section has been done for you.
- From the text, think about how much information you would include for each section. Then copy the information onto the table.
- In this activity you will be reinforcing (strengthening) your ability to retrieve and copy information.

Title	Adventure at Sandy Cove
Opening Main characters in an everyday setting Find an interest object	"Hurry up," shouted Joe...
Build up Danger arrives
Dilemma Danger increases and it looks like there is no escape
Resolution Danger overcome in some way	Suddenly, there was a distant shout...
Ending Main character safe More information revealed about the object/rewards	