

Monday 8th February 2021

English

Spellings

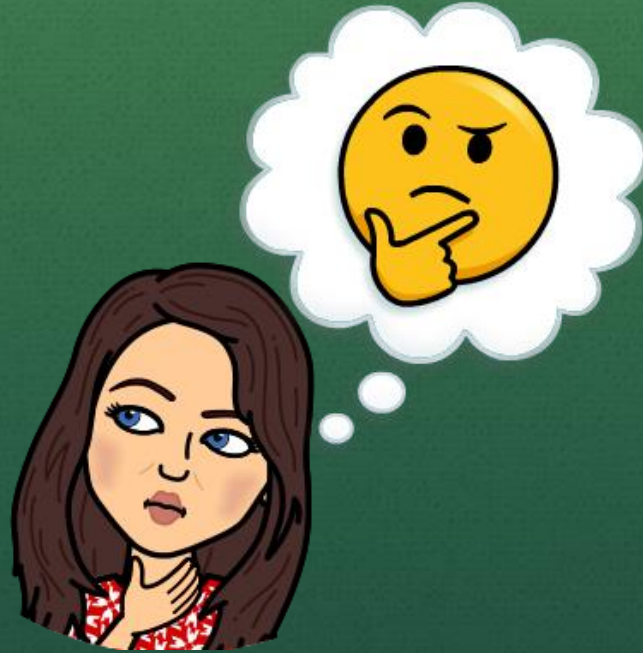

- eight
- enough
- exercise
- experience
- experiment

Let's recap...

What is our new English topic?

What is a Non-Chronological Report?

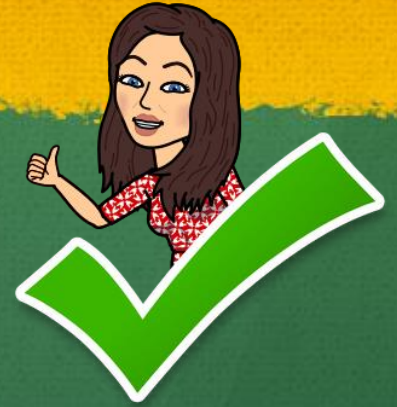

What is a Non-Chronological Report?

A non-chronological report is a non-fiction text.

It's purpose is to give people information about a subject.

WALT: Plan a non-chronological report

S2S:

- I can use my research.
- I can plan what I will include in my NCR.
- I can use a planning template (optional).

Key Features of a NCR

Title

Introduction - Gives an overview of the topic

Paragraphs

Sub-headings

Fact Boxes & labelled pictures

Extra detail to support the main points

Factual information

Present tense

Technical language

Third person

Formal Tone

Today we are going to plan a non-chronological report!

Our focus is Guatemala. Read the notes that you made on Thursday when you were researching all about Guatemala.

Planning Time!

A planning template is on class dojo. If you wish to use this you can or you can plan however you like.

Remember to send your learning to your class teacher on dojo for some feedback.