SPaG-subordinate clauses

Today we are going to use what we have learnt throughout the week to write a description of a setting. Look carefully at the picture.

- What can you see?
- What would you smell?
- What would you hear?

Here is an example...

The sun streamed down, although the many trees offered shade. I could hear a bird squawking, even though I couldn't see it. After the rain stopped, steam came floating off the ground. The sound of the water pouring filled the air, before that was interrupted by a monkey screaming.
