Publishing your suspense story

It's time to publish our writing, so that your readers can enjoy what you have written.

Top tips to think about when publishing:

- Give your story a Title
(make it larger than your normal writing)
- Think about the picture you want to include
(remember to draw a picture box, so that you can write around it)
- Use your reading books at home to give you an idea of how to include a picture.
- At the end of your story don't write The End, but instead Written by and your first name.
