WALT publish writing

S2S: I can

- edit to improve my writing
- write neatly and legibly
- present my writing as a diary entry

Self-editing checklist

Before you start to publish your writing, create your own self-editing checklist, so that you can refer to this when writing up your final copy and tick off those that you have successfully used in your writing.

It would be a good idea to get someone else to double check. This could be an adult in your family or a friend.

For example you could include on your checklist:

Checklist	✓ or x Me	✓ or x Peer/Adult
Past tense
Adverbials
Commas after fronted adverbials
