

CGP Book – GP&S

To help you with your diary writing this week, you will be using your Grammar, Punctuation & Spelling CGP Book for the first part of each English lesson.

Grammar

Today, we are going to focus on linking ideas in paragraphs. In this section we will focus on adverbials. This will be either Section 3 or Section 4 of your book.

For today, please complete the first two pages under this section. For example p18 and 19 or it may be p26 and 27 or it could be just p16. Check your book carefully.

The English learning video by Oak National Academy will begin with an English warm up: using colons to introduce a list.

These will include the following activities which we would like you to complete in your books.

Activity One

Create a mind map of questions that might race through your mind. Remember to include the correct punctuation at the end of your sentence.

You will need to watch the learning video in order to complete both activities successfully.

Activity Two

Complete the sentence using a colon and question

Main part of the learning video ...

to write the opening of a diary entry

- Focus on summarising the day and explaining to your diary how you feel about the move to Britain.
- Remember it's up to you whether you are having a negative, neutral or positive reaction to the news.
- Once you have finished your opening highlight or underline where you have met the steps to success.
